

Kelly Services Acquires Tempstaff Kelly Joint Venture

March 28, 2007

Company Increases Investment in Japan

TROY, MI, Mar 28, 2007 -- Kelly Services, Inc. (NASDAQ: KELYA) (NASDAQ: KELYB), a global staffing solutions provider, today announced it will acquire the remaining shares of Tempstaff Kelly, a joint venture originally created with Sony Corporation and Tempstaff, the second largest staffing company in Japan. With the purchase of Tempstaff's 51 percent ownership share, Kelly Services will now have 100% ownership and will direct all Tempstaff Kelly operations effective April 1, 2007. Full year 2007 revenue is estimated at $40 million.

Tempstaff Kelly, headquartered in Minato-ku, Tokyo, was the first ever tri-party staffing services company in Japan. Launched in September 2005, Tempstaff Kelly provides general temporary employment, recruitment, HR consulting and outsourcing services to the Sony Corporation and other companies. In October 2006, Kelly Services acquired the Sony Corporation's 40 percent ownership interest in Tempstaff Kelly.

"We're extremely pleased with the success of our joint venture with Tempstaff," said Carl Camden, chief executive officer of Kelly Services. "The purchase of Tempstaff Kelly continues our strategic, phased expansion into key Asia Pacific markets, and we look forward to offering Kelly's portfolio of professional, technical and staffing alternative brands."

Kei Itakura, country manager for Kelly Japan, will oversee all day to day operations.
