

Kelly Services Wins Stevie Award(TM) for Best Web Site Design

June 9, 2005

Company's MyKelly.com Web Site for Temporary Employees Receives Highest Honor

Who: Kelly Services, Inc., a global staffing solutions provider headquartered in Troy, Mich.

What: Kelly Services announced its temporary employees' Web site, MyKelly.com, was awarded the Stevie TM from the American Business Awards for "Best Overall Web Site Design."

When: The award was announced on June 6, 2005 at the third annual American Business Awards, a national business award program recognizing exemplary workplace performance.

Background: In October 2004, Kelly Services launched MyKelly.com to provide an effective communication tool between our company and our temporary employees. Hundreds of thousands of our temporary employees can access this online gateway for up-to-date information about Kelly Services, answers about benefit plans, including vacation, holiday, health insurance, employee discounts, and recognition programs. This virtual community also gives employees' access to Kelly job postings and the company's online learning center.
