The Kelly branches will place accounting and finance professionals in temporary, full-time and direct placement positions across all financial disciplines, from highly experienced support-level professionals to senior-level finance and accounting management.

"Our new offices will allow us to grow our strategic partnerships with clients currently utilizing other services through Kelly," said Robert Lyons, vice president, Kelly Financial Resources. "We combine an experienced management team with Kelly's vast resources and reputation as an industry leader to serve our financial customers and candidates worldwide."

Kelly Financial Resources maintains 47 company-owned and operated offices in 13 countries throughout North America and Europe.
