

Kelly Services Recognized by GlaxoSmithKline for Innovative Supplier Diversity Efforts

January 11, 2007

TROY, Mich. (Jan. 11, 2007) - Kelly Services, Inc., a global staffing solutions provider, was recently honored for its commitment to supplier diversity by GlaxoSmithKline, Inc., a leading research-based pharmaceutical firm.

During its annual Supplier Diversity Awards Luncheon, GlaxoSmithKline presented Kelly with their Innovation Award, which honors a supplier who has resourcefully demonstrated originality, creativity and innovation to support the company's overall goals and objectives to further diverse supplier development.

Kelly's Supplier Diversity Development team was recognized for hosting a Diversity Summit with GlaxoSmithKline to promote MWDBE business development, provide a networking forum for staffing companies and to share best practices within the supply chain.

"Kelly Services has a well-established supplier diversity team, and they have truly stepped up to the challenge of strengthening economic prosperity in diverse communities everywhere," said Denise Gatling, manager, Procurement Supplier Diversity, GlaxoSmithKline.

"Our companies share a long-standing commitment to providing equal opportunity for all businesses," said Nicole Lewis, vice president, Supplier Diversity Development, Kelly Services. "It is a privilege to be recognized by GlaxoSmithKline and we look forward to continuing our partnership in the advancement of diverse suppliers."
