"We are thankful that Terry has recovered and that the strong, global organization he has led will once again benefit from his advice and counsel," said Carl T. Camden, who continues as President and Chief Executive Officer, the position to which he was named February 27 under the company's succession plan.

Mr. Adderley said, "I am grateful to Carl, Verne and the rest of the board and management team for their seamless stewardship of Kelly Services during my hospitalization and recovery. I am also very pleased to once again be able to contribute to the success of a company that means so much to me."

Mr. Adderley joined Kelly in 1958 as manager of the company's Louisville, Kentucky office. He was elected vice president of the company in 1961 and joined the board of directors in 1962. Mr. Adderley was elected executive vice president in 1965, president in 1967, chief executive officer in 1987 and chairman in 1998.

Before being named acting chief executive officer on February 9, Mr. Camden had served as president and chief operating officer and as a member of the Board of the Directors since November 2001. He joined Kelly in April 1995 as senior vice president, Corporate Marketing and was promoted to executive vice president, Marketing & Strategy in 1997. Mr. Camden was named executive vice president in charge of Field Operations, Sales & Marketing in 1998, and in April 2001 was promoted to executive vice president and chief operating officer.

Mr. Istock, who had served as non-executive chairman of the board since February 27, is the former chairman, president and chief executive officer of First Chicago NBD Corporation and former chairman and president of Bank One Corporation, from which he retired in 2000. He also formerly served as a director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. He has been a member of the Kelly Services Board of Directors since 1991.
