

Kelly Home Care Services Recognizes Top Caregivers

May 24, 2005

Company honors outstanding employees in 10 states

TROY, Mich. (May 24, 2005) - Kelly Home Care Services, a business unit of global staffing provider Kelly Services, Inc., is recognizing employees in 10 states as 'Caregivers of the Quarter' for the second quarter of the 2005 fiscal year. The Kelly Home Care Services Caregiver of the Quarter program recognizes employees who provide exemplary service and demonstrate the highest standards of integrity and quality.

"Our caregivers consistently display high levels of professionalism, strong work ethics, and extraordinary dedication," said Gil Rosales, senior director, Kelly Home Care Services. "They provide invaluable levels of care and companionship that enable people to live happier, healthier, more independent lives."

Selected from more than 3,000 of Kelly's caregivers across the nation, this quarter's awardees include:

Merrytha Innocent, Tampa, Fla.
Rochelle Harris, Rockford, Ill.
Debra Perkins, Grand Rapids, Mich.
Christina Burch-Farrar, Charlotte, N.C.
Renee Bitye, Harrisburg, Pa.
Felicia Jackson, Cleveland, Ohio
Majella Toth, Portland, Ore.
Alexandria Coe, Chattanooga, Tenn.
Kai Tantlinger, Spokane, Wash.
Joanne James, Charleston, W. Va.

Each quarter, Kelly Home Care district managers have the opportunity to nominate one caregiver for recognition based on their performance and recommendations from clients. The awardees receive a gift certificate, a commemorative pin, and become eligible for the annual Caregiver of the Year Award, which will be announced in conjunction with National Caregiver Month in November 2005.
