Tempstaff Kelly, Inc. will provide general temporary employment, recruitment, HR consulting and outsourcing primarily for the Sony Group. Additionally, the companies will collaborate to service European and United States companies operating within Japan.

"Our expansion into Japan - the world's fourth largest staffing market - is a critically important step in our global expansion strategy," said Terence E. Adderley, chairman and chief executive officer, Kelly Services. "Our partnership with Tempstaff and the Sony Corporation better positions us to meet the needs of our global customers," added Carl Camden, Kelly's president and chief operating officer.
