These substitute teachers are among 9,000 Kelly Educational Staffing professionals who serve more than 1,700 schools across 41 states. Their managers, who receive regular performance feedback from permanent teachers and school administrators, nominated them for the Substitute Teacher of the Semester honor. They earn gift certificates and are eligible to become Kelly's National Substitute Teacher of the Year, an honor that is awarded at the end of the school year.

Substitute teachers from Kelly meet state and local certification requirements for any K-12 teaching situation in a public or private school. By using Kelly Educational Staffing, schools save valuable time and resources by eliminating the burden of recruiting, screening, interviewing, preparing and scheduling substitute teachers. Kelly Educational Staffing originated in 1997 and was launched nationwide in 1999. For more information, visit <http://www.kellyeducationalstaffing.com>.

Kelly Educational Staffing pays substitute teachers the prevailing wage in the school or district. Kelly also provides a range of benefits generally unavailable to other substitute teachers, including weekly pay, direct deposit, free software training, vacation/holiday bonus pay, and access to health benefits and a 401(k) program. An orientation/training session and comprehensive grade-appropriate handbooks developed by The Substitute Teaching Institute at Utah State University help prepare Kelly teachers for the classroom.
